Protection of Immovables in European Legal Systems Mar 21 2022 How should a landowner respond when a squatter occupies their land? This book discusses the issues focussing on vindicatio, possessory remedies and trespass, but also explores administrative procedures for their removal. In many cases, these actions derive from Roman laws, which are expertly explored in an introductory chapter. Also included is a chapter exploring human rights interventions in such actions. Twelve case studies offer an extensive and comparative analysis across sixteen European jurisdictions. The basic defendants covered are squatters taking over a home, environmental protesters, licensees and former tenants. The case studies include, amongst others, self-help; restitution; competing claims to ownership (and the relevance of registration systems to claims to ownership); adverse possession; neighbours; nuisance and encroachment.

Erwerbssicherung beim Grundstückskauf Sep 22 2019 Unter Geltung des Trennungsprinzips droht der Erwerb des Grundstückskaufers in der Schwebephase zwischen Vertragsschluss und Ubereignung an der Insolvenz des Verkäufers, an Zwangsvollstreckungsmassnahmen in das verkaufte Grundstück oder an vertragswidrigen anderweitigen Verfügungen zu scheitern. Zur Kompensation dieser Risiken haben deutsches, englisches, schottisches und spanisches Recht vielfältige Sicherungsmechanismen entwickelt, die eine interessengerechte und funktionsfähige Erwerbsabwicklung gewährleisten sollen. Wiebke Voss analysiert, kategorisiert und bewertet rechtsvergleichend die Modelle der Erwerbssicherung und lotet aus, wie die Rechtsposition des derart geschützten Käufers in die Dichotomie der Vermögensrechte einzuordnen ist: Hat er noch ein Schuldrecht oder schon ein Sachenrecht inne oder handelt es sich bei der Erwerberstellung gar um eine hybride Zwischenrechtsform?

Cases Decided in the Court of Session, Teind Court, Court of Exchequer and House of Lords May 11 2021 Vols. for 1847/48-1872/73 include cases decided in the Teind Court; 1847/48-1858/59 include cases decided in the Court of Exchequer; 1850/51- included cases decided in the House of Lords; 1873/74- include cases decided in the Court of Justiciary. Transfer of Immovables in European Private Law May 23 2022 This volume explores the law relating to the transfer of immovables in seventeen countries within Europe.

Time Limited Interests in Land Apr 22 2022 A comprehensive comparative treatment of six instances of time-limited interests in land as encountered in fourteen European jurisdictions. The survey explores the commercial or social origins of each legal institution concerned and highlights their enforceability against third parties, their content and their role in land development. The commercial purpose of residential and agricultural leases is contrasted with the social aim of personal servitudes (and its common-law equivalent liferent) to provide sustenance for life to mostly family members making the latter an important estate planning device. Whereas the ingrained principles of leases and personal servitudes restrain the full exploitation of land, it is indicated that public authorities and private capital could combine to turn the old-fashioned time-limited institutions of hereditary building lease (superficies) and hereditary land lease (emphyteusis) into pivotal devices in alleviating the acute shortage of social housing and in promoting the fullest exploitation of pristine agricultural land.

Essays in Conveyancing and Property Law in Honour of Professor Robert Rennie Aug 26 2022 Professor Robert Rennie has been one of the most influential voices in Scots private law over the past thirty years. Highly respected as both an academic and a practitioner, his contribution to the development of property law and practice has been substantial and unique. This volume celebrates his retirement from the Chair of Conveyancing at the University of Glasgow in 2014 with a selection of essays written by his peers and colleagues from the judiciary, academia and legal practice. Each chapter covers a topic of particular interest to Professor Rennie during his career, from the historical development of property law rules through to the latest developments in conveyancing practice and the evolution of the rules of professional negligence. Although primarily Scottish in focus, the contributions will have much of interest to lawyers in any jurisdiction struggling with similar practical problems, particularly those with similar legal roots including the Netherlands and South Africa. As a whole, the collection is highly recommended to students, practitioners and academics.

Divergences of Property Law Jun 24 2022 This work is inspired by the comparative study published in The Interaction of Contract Law and Tort and Property Law in Europe (ISBN 3 935808 20 8-Cloth-$79.00-2004). Out of a transnational (comparative and EU-oriented) perspective, the essays included discuss whether divergences of property law on contractual security rights in movables constitute an obstacle to the internal market and, if so, what solutions could be offered. Unification or harmonization of private international law cannot offer an adequate solution, while unification of domestic security laws could. However, the latter will take a very long time, partly due to the specific nature of property law. The contributing authors advocate the development of a European Security Right in Movables (ESRM) in addition to the respective contemporary national security rights. A real ESRM would clearly support free competition within the European Union. However, the development of an ESRM will take much time, in particular when dealing with the relation between that ESRM and domestic security rights in the member states. The reader will also find considerations on the contents of an ESRM and on the outlines of the required additional provisions.

Modern Studies in Property Law - Feb 20 2022 This book contains a collection of peer-reviewed papers presented at the Tenth Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at the University of Liverpool in April 2014. It is the eighth volume to be published under the name of the Conference. The Conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline. This collection reflects the diversity and contemporary relevance of modern research in property law. Incorporating a keynote address by Sir John Mummery, retired Lord Justice of Appeal, on 'Property in the Information Age', a number of chapters consider the contribution of property law to issues central to the human condition; the home, health and death. Other papers illustrate an enduring need to question and explore fundamental concepts of the subject as well as to consider the challenges of reforming the law. Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy and importance of property law in dealing with modern concerns across the common law world.

Finding the Law May 31 2020 Recent years have seen a dramatic increase in the number and range of Scottish legal textbooks, journals and reports, adding to more than three centuries of materials. The arrival of electronic publishing, on the Internet and CD-ROM, has added a further dimension. Along with these developments has come a greater responsibility for everyone involved in the law - students, academics and practitioners - to obtain information which is authoritative, complete and up-to-date, as quickly and cost-effectively as possible. Finding the Law is a practical guide to the leading sources of Scots, English and European law and to the means of accessing them. Notable websites and useful telephone numbers are listed in appendices. Previously a T & T Clarke publication.
